

k-love serves myself and others greatly in three areas of my life music, news and ministry. We the community would be let down by the FCC and goverment, if fm translators were forced off air. It is supported by users, but freely heard by many and change lifes for the better . helping community.